

ArtFellows recognizes local artist

The diversity of creative expression is a hallmark of the County Arts & Culture Foundation Gallery through ArtFellows.

Each of the nearly 100 local artists whose work has been selected for display in the gallery is recognized. The recent recipient featured past Month Magazine ArtFellow artist, Michael Sweeney. Sweeney's work is a combination of traditional techniques and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

It is difficult to categorize and describe the work of artists of this nature, a work which includes the traditional and the modern. Sweeney's work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

The artist's work shows a combination of traditional and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Michael Sweeney is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Artist's Eye Carolee Weigartz

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

In her artwork, Weigartz uses traditional techniques and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

"Through research, I discovered that the work of the artist is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

While searching for a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques, I discovered that the work of the artist is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz is a local artist whose work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Michael Sweeney's work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. His work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.

Carolee Weigartz's work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques. Her work is a combination of traditional and modern techniques.